1971 Murmurmontis

West Virginia Wesleyan College

Volume 61 Part I

PUBLISHED ANNUALLY BY THE
WESLEYAN COLLEGE

The 1971 Murmurmontis is unique for Wesleyan. Its format was designed for a specific reason. No one made a mistake; part of the book is really upside down. This academic year, 1970-71, marked the 80th year of Wesleyan's existence. The Wesleyan community should be very proud of the college's history and also be aware of it. It is to this purpose we have dedicated this volume of the Murmurmontis. Part I is the traditional collection of the academic year's activities and personalities. Part II has been inserted upside down behind a separate cover and designed quite differently. This 48 page section is a pictorial history of the college since its opening in 1890. This is the first time an attempt has been made to collect pictures of Wesleyan's past. Many long hours of research, editing, and photographing have gone into the section. It is our gift to Wesleyan, as it is our final attempt to produce a Murmurmontis that is meaningful to those who receive it. As seniors, we leave Wesleyan in May; but Wesleyan will remain a collection of wonderful memories with this volume of the Murmurmontis, not only for us, but all that have ever been associated with the college.

Academics

The pursuit of an academic goal must be guided by competent and skilled leaders. Wesleyan, through its administrative staff, has opened the doors for the advancement of many modern ideas in education as well as planning for the future generation of scholars. Under the current Five-Year Planning, Wesleyan is striving to give the student more freedom in his academic pursuits and making room for innovations on the part of the faculty to advance the standards of the past to the rapidly changing facets of modern life. The openness of communications among administration, faculty, and students; the effort of the faculty for the advancement of the students' learning; and the students' concern for the campus community have led Wesleyan to be a leader in the field of education.

This academic year, 1970-71, marked the 80th anniversary of the college under the present leadership of Dr. Stanley Martin. President Martin is pictured on this page with the Founders' Day Convocation speaker. President of the college in 1910, Mr. Carl Doney, is pictured at top right.

Administration

"This year West Virginia Wesleyan College celebrates its 80th year of service. But as we celebrate the achievements of the past, let us recognize that the best is yet to come. Jonathan Swift once said, 'No wise man ever wishes to be younger,' and so it must be with us. Let us in the years ahead use resource, talent, and skill to make Wesleyan an even better place in which to live and learn, and thus assure a brighter future."

STANLEY H. MARTIN

Art and Music

The Art Department works to develop individual creative ability and appreciation of the fine arts. Emphasis is placed on experimentation leading to personal discovery and originality. Professional quality is stressed.

Department majors in Music may elect to pursue courses of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts in applied music, church music, theory, or the Bachelor of Music Education curriculum, designed specifically for those preparing for the teaching profession. This department contributes generously to the religious and cultural life of the college community through a wide variety of presentations on campus and by way of tour groups throughout the country. A close relationship between students and staff in the department creates a desirable climate for learning and collaborative undertakings.

English and Languages

This year the Department of English has attempted to improve and expand its role on the Wesleyan Campus. In trying to academically upgrade its curriculum, the department has begun an experimental exemption program for freshmen and has instituted a more complete offering of upper level literature courses. To provide students with a voice in departmental affairs, regular meetings have been initiated with English Majors and Minors.

The Department of Romance Languages offers both the major and the minor students an opportunity to acquire the conversational skills, cultural background, and literary knowledge.

The Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts is dedicated to the fundamental task of developing the communication ability of the individual student. The ethics, theories and mechanics of speech communication are stressed. Courses and co-curricular activities provide experimental laboratory situations in interpersonal communication, group discussions, speeches, oral interpretative reading and acting. Courses in the dramatic arts and involvement in WVWC Theatre productions acquaint the student with literature and production techniques of the past and present.

Biology

We attempt to teach the science of life, which includes a study of all organisms. We study both structure and function of organisms. We also consider taxonomy and presumable evolutionary, hereditary relationships among organisms, according to similarities and differences in structure and function. We are concerned with the essential and developing study of cause and effect in mutual environmental relationships. We believe some first hand experience and original, individual, but guided study is indispensable to good training. We attempt to train people: to be curious, to observe conditions, to understand and express ideas clearly and simply according to intended scope.

Chemistry

It is possible for a student to earn either a bachelor of arts degree in chemistry at Wesleyan. Bachelor of science majors receive highly professional preparation which prepares them to meet requirements of leading graduate schools or to go directly into industry as chemists. The bachelor of arts curriculum, offering a strong background in chemistry, is designed especially for students planning to continue their education to become doctors, dentists, nurses, technicians or teachers. The faculty encourages students to participate in independent study and research.

Psychology and Sociology

The Psychology Department aids the student in adjustment to himself and others, preparation for graduate study and in acquiring a liberal education.

One important goal of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology is to make students aware of their social environment leading them to understand the implications of interpersonal and group relationships and the ways in which human beings organize themselves to achieve desired social goals. A second goal is to make students aware of themselves as products of American cultures and nations. Thirdly, the Department endeavors to offer some professional training for persons interested in the field of social welfare.

The History and Government Department is under the division of social sciences. The major objective of the division is to increase an understanding and appreciation of one's own socialization and growth. Along with this knowledge a student can develop good citizenship by being tolerant of other ideas and learning about different cultures. In this way a student will be able to think objectively and to establish logical answers for the problems of society. Teachers and students often come together for evenings of informative discussion and enlightening conversation.

Library Science

The Department of Library Science prepares students to serve as librarians in various types of libraries, including the role of teacher-librarian in the public schools. Some students prepare for graduate study in this field. The curriculum is designed to be comprehensive and practical. The nine courses are taught by four experienced librarians. Both a major and minor program are available.

Home Economics

Home Economics synthesizes knowledge drawn from its own research and from the physical, biological, and social sciences and the arts and applies this knowledge to improving the lives of families and individuals. It is the purpose of this department to educate the individual for family living. Emphasis is placed upon the development of certain fundamental knowledge and competence concerned with the selection, production, and consumption of material resources and human resources of skill and knowledge.

Graduates

To seniors, graduation sometimes seems to be a goal or end toward which they have worked all their college years. But it is not so much an end as a beginning because the whole college experience is a beginning. It is a unique time, not so much of learning as of finding out how much more there is to learn. It is a time of accomplishing things and discovering. It is a time of new experiences, each of which offers a glimpse of a myriad of other possible experiences. It is a unique time within itself, the memory of which will always be treasured; but more than this, it is a taste, a beginning, and a foundation for life.

Graduation ceremonies are traditional. As seen in the picture on the opposite page, the 1937 class of graduates enjoyed ceremonies similar to ours today. Also pictured are two graduates of the 1930's.

And a youth said, Speak to us of Friendship. And he answered, saying: Your friend is your needs answered. He is your field which you sow with love and reap with thanksgiving. And he is your board and your fireside. For you come to him with your hunger, and you seek him for peace.

When your friend speaks his mind you fear not the "nay" in your own mind, nor do you withhold the "aye." And when he is silent your heart ceases not to listen to his heart: For without words, in friendship, all thoughts, all desires, all expectations are born and shared, with joy that is unacclaimed. When you part from your friend, you grieve not; For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain. And let there be no purpose in friendship save the deepening of the spirit. For love that seeks aught but the disclosure of its own mystery is not love but a net cast forth: and only the unprofitable is caught.

And let your best be for your friend. If he must know the ebb of your tide, let him know its flood also. For what is your friend that you should seek him with hours to kill? Seek him always with hours to live. For it is his to fill your need, but not your emptiness. And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures. For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

Kahlil Gibran

Organizations

Wesleyan's organizations provide outlets for many different kinds of interests and fellowship among students with common interests. Students can take an actual part in regulating activities on campus through Community Council, CCPB, Religious Life Council, AWS, and the Honor Board. Opportunities for service to the campus and the community are provided by SSP, Kappa Phi, and Sigma Theta Epsilon. Outlets for particular intellectual interests are provided by such clubs as the Philosophy and Anthropology Clubs. Students can pursue hobbies or gain experience in their major fields through such organizations as choir, band, the college radio station, the Phys. Ed. club, and the Pharos and Murmurmontis staffs. For those with an adventuresome spirit, there is the Ski Club, 4-H Club, and Scuba Diving Club. Wesleyan is constantly striving to provide new opportunities through new organizations, such as the Para-medical Association, which is new this year. Whatever his interests, each student should be able to find at least one organization to which he would like to belong.

Throughout the years, organizations have been an integral part of Wesleyan's campus life.

Tour Choir and Brass Ensemble Bring Honor to Wesleyan

The Tour Choir, consisting of 42 members chosen mostly from the Chapel Choir, tours West Virginia and neighboring states every spring in order to recruit students for Wesleyan. This year during spring break, they sang in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and West Virginia.

Although recruiting is an important function of the group, Mr. Larry Parsons, director, explains that the real purpose is a personal one for each member. Because the members must work steadily (and under pressure!) for several months, they learn to work with each other in the perfecting of music and to accept each other as human beings.

The Tour Choir also gave a home concert in the spring.

For the first time last year, the Tour Choir went to Europe, accompanied by the Jazz Ensemble. They performed in Vienna, Austria; Zurich, Switzerland; Hamburg and West Berlin, German; Stavanger, Norway; Bergen and Copenhagen, Denmark; Göteburg, Sweden; London, Surrey, Bristol, and Bath, England.

At the immediate right, director Larry Parsons rehearses the choir the first weekend in Vienna in the Josef Rakosch Restaurant where their meals were served. At the upper right the choir and brass ensemble performed at a camp in Trollhattan, Sweden. In a Copenhagen, Denmark subway on their way from singing at a local Midsummer Festival, the group travels to the Tivoli Gardens for a night of fun. At the lower right, C. Hardy, M. Brannon, G. Dadesman, C. Eccles, J. Hopkins pose in front of a historical church during the choir's excursion in Lucerne, Switzerland.

Wesleyan Choirs Combine Talents and Interests

The Chorale is the most select group with twenty-seven members who are able to learn demanding music in a relatively short time. Larry Parsons, director, feels the Chorale is an exciting and rewarding experience for all its members.

The Chapel Choir serves the college community with music for some convocations and Sunday morning services. It offers its members a chance to sing together in a worthwhile and rewarding situation. Larry Parsons, director, states the choir's purpose as "fellowship in music." They work hard not just to learn notes and words, but to discover what they mean and to communicate that discovery to the audience.

The Women's Glee Club performs for Sunday morning worship services and also for convocation. Members seek to add to their understanding and appreciation of music while enhancing their performing skill through singing compositions from all musical periods and styles.

The Hyma Glee Club provides an opportunity for Wesleyan men with little or no previous singing experience to participate in a choral group. It has 130 members. Since most of the members do not read music, easier folk and popular songs are stressed. Occasional performances are given.

The Music Educator's National Convention organized this year with two purposes in mind: 1) to make Wesleyan's music students better teachers for tomorrow, and 2) to make them better musicians by awareness of cultural events away from Wesleyan's campus.

Meetings revolved around topics relevant to the music students: how to teach music to the mentally retarded; how to implement the guitar in teaching; and how to make better use of materials offered by publishing companies.

Jazz Band Sparks Interest on Campus

The West Virginia Wesleyan College Jazz Ensemble is a seventeen piece jazz band directed by Professor David Milburn. The band performed for Wesleyan's Banquet, a Homecoming Weekend Concert, and programs in the Lewisburg, W. Va. area, in addition to going on tour during spring break. It also accepted an invitation to perform at the Northern W. Va. Stageband Festival in Clarksburg.

The band's program was varied, including original arrangements, swing tunes in the Count Basie style, rock numbers, ballads, and concert jazz selections. Soloists from each section were featured throughout the program. The concerts are designed for appeal and enjoyment to all.

The jazz band consists of the traditional instrumentation of five saxophones, four trumpets, four trombones, bass, piano, drums, and guitar.

AGO Focuses on Church Music

The American Guild of Organists works to advance the cause of worthy church music, provide better musicians for the church and studies contemporary trends in music.

Band Keeps Pace With

Intense concentration and practice helps the marching band give a "good show."

Three bands composed the band program at Wesleyan this year, including the concert band, marching band, and jazz band. Professor David Milburn directed all three.

Approximately seventy members make up the concert band, which gave three concerts for the college community, one in December and two in the spring.

The marching band included sixty members whose main activities were marching in the Homecoming parade and entertaining at football games. The band performed precision drills and picture formations for half-time shows.

Eighteen members comprised the newly formed jazz band which gave two concerts, one in October and one in the spring.

Committee Work Encompasses Many Areas of Wesleyan Life

Students, faculty, administrators, and people from every aspect of campus life compose the membership of community council. Various committees such as Academic Affairs, Awards, Community Awareness, Elections, Library, Publications, Special Activities, and Traffic concern themselves with campus coordination. Reports are given by such organizations as AWS, CCPB, Intrafraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, Men's House Governing Board, and Religious Life Council. The Faculty and administration also voice their opinions and work on the council. These interested persons try to coordinate all campus happenings and improve all phases of the campus community. On matters of policy change and initiation, Community Council acts much like the U.S. Congress. The Council constantly works behind scenes, initiating such things as parking lot improvement, vending machines, hours for senior women, and open dorms.

Awards: B. Miller, C. Simpson, S. Ledebur, J. White, R. Linsenmann.

The Community Awareness committee asserts all effort to improve communications on campus and on the local, national, and international level. This year's United Fund drive and the Ecology work in April are a few of this committee's activities. By dialing 166, one may hear an informative talk by an administrator over the Centrex system. The committee also posts minutes of all community council meetings in the dorms, campus center, library, and Kresge Hall.

Community Council's Awards Committee arranges the Recognition Day program given every spring and names the recipients of such awards as Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Wesleyan Keys for Activities and Wesleyan Ann and Andy. The committee considers nominees for the awards carefully, evaluating their qualifications and achievements. Members of the committee include the Dean of Men, Dean of Women, Dean of Students, Vice-President of Academic Affairs, two faculty members and five students. The committee is also responsible for awards presented during Homecoming and May Weekend.

The Traffic committee issues all parking permits to students and faculty. It tracks down all violators and investigates safety measures concerning traffic in and around the campus. The committee also sponsors buses to games and buses for rides home at Christmas.

The Publications committee meets periodically to discuss the student publications, Pharos, Murmurmontis, and the Student Handbook, and to offer helpful suggestions to these publications.

Traffic: P. Leavens, J. Blauvell, S. Buttermore, J. McClain.

Publications. First Row: R. Althaus, B. Boltz, Mrs. Janet McCoy, M. J. Hodgman, J. Richmond. Second Row: L. Duffield, S. Sharpe, S. Hartley.

Success of Council Is Reflected in Homecoming

The Special Activities committee organizes and co-ordinates all events for May Weekend and Homecoming, including parades, programs, etc. They oversee all other committees, such as Elections and Awards, who contribute to these two annual events. Its success lies in the smoothness and effectiveness of the activities.

The Academic Affairs committee handles student evaluations of the faculty and entire college. The members concern themselves with academic and educational affairs. Changes in academic policy can be prompted by this committee whose sole job is to maintain academic standards while helping to bring about curriculum and academic change.

The Elections committee conducts such elections as Community Council, class officers, Homecoming Queen and her court, and the May Queen and her court. The faculty advisor is Pam Cutright.

AWS Strives to Incorporate New Ideas

Association of Women Students, composed of all campus women, sponsored many beneficial activities during the school year. Along with Little-Sister Weekend, the Recognition and Rose Banquets and the Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, AWS helped sponsor an LES speaker who talked about assaults on women.

The organization also experimented with various social regulations, such as visitations and self-determined hours for senior women.

Honor Board Seeks Student Integrity

The Honor Board consists of students and faculty members who were concerned chiefly with maintaining integrity on the campus. This year the Board mailed copies of the honor code to all freshmen and transfer students. The members are to review accounts of trespassing of the honor code and deal with them accordingly.

Men's Housing Board Copes With Dorm Problems

Representatives from the three men's dorms — Doney, McCuskey, and Fleming, compose the Men's Housing Board. Under the supervision of Dean Emery, the board acts as a coordinator for activities in the men's dormitories.

Projects undertaken by this board include outdoor basketball and placing trash cans on campus.

The Town and Commuters, a branch of AWS, attempts to create a link between home and campus life for girls who do not live on campus. A special room in the basement of Agnes Howard provides a place for the girls to go between classes to study or just to talk. TAC holds social functions such as the freshman dinner, Christmas party, and senior picnic.

Kappa Phi is a national organization for Methodist women whose purpose is to serve the campus and community. It sponsors such activities as the SSP Christmas party, tours of the chapel, adoption of a Korean child, and payment for his college education, and serving as babysitters of the kindergarten of the Methodist Church. It is the aim of Kappa Phi that "every university Christian woman who accepts membership be a growing person and an active participant in the Christian community of today and tomorrow."

Sigma Theta Epsilon is a national service fraternity for Christian men in college. Its purposes are to promote wholesome special activities, to participate in worthwhile service projects to organize life around Jesus Christ and the church, and to develop effective leadership in the church and the world. Sigma Theta's activities include trips to the Elkin's Children's Home, a work week, a part in working with the Neighborhood Youth Corps, SSP, seclusion weekend at Deep Creek Lake, Md., a chicken barbeque, and a spring formal dinner dance.

HEA Puts Talents to Use in the Community

President Priscilla Hovis introduces the program on make-up application.

The Home Economics Association stresses involvement in all areas of home economics. A variety of related meetings throughout the year exemplify this goal. The organization sponsors several projects throughout the year, such as teaching blind women to use the sewing machine and holding a bazaar to raise money.

Glauner Historical Society Travels to Williamsburg

The Glauner Historical Society attempts to keep history alive, providing a social and intellectual atmosphere within the club. The members, who are all history majors or minors, took a weekend field trip to colonial Williamsburg this year. They meet twice a month, usually with an outside speaker. Mr. Sharpe is the advisor.

Philosophy Club Seeks New Horizons

The principal objective of the Philosophy Club is to learn "how to do philosophy rather than talk philosophy." In doing philosophy, one achieves clarity in thinking and learns to recognize truths. In this way, one learns to achieve distance from immediate concerns and realizes that man, with the aid of his own limited intelligence, finds his way in an indifferent universe.

4-H Club Generates Outdoor Spirit

The 4-H Outing Club of Wesleyan provides its members with the opportunity to enjoy the outdoors and to participate in state and national activities. Some of the club's activities this year include spelunking, a group awareness weekend at Jackson's Mill, and junior leadership training camps. The club also planned to clean up the Buckhannon River and the surrounding areas.

Sociology-Anthropology Club Maintains Flexibile Membership

The Sociology and Anthropology Club hopes to provide some insights into the fields of sociology and anthropology. Meeting once a month, the group consists of sociology majors and minors and other interested persons. There are no rigid membership rules and no dues. Anyone interested in a particular meeting may come. The organization tries to have one field trip during the year. Last year the group traveled to the Goodwill Industries in Pittsburgh and to see a display of Black-Afro Art. The students also visited Bethany House.

The purpose of the W.V.W.C. Diving Club is the education and recreation of its members through skin and scuba diving. The club accomplishes this through lectures, films, and trips planned in the spring. Bill Thurman, president, taught a scuba course in conjunction with CCPB. The advisor is Dr. Carl Colson.

SSP Lets Students Get Involved

SSP is a student service organization which works particularly with children. One of its biggest projects is the Big Brother-Big Sister program which continues throughout the semester. The group also holds tutoring centers, recreational activities on Saturday afternoons in the Federal Housing Project, a program for the blind, one for the handicapped, and Sunday afternoon workshops.

WVWC/FM Expands Broadcast

WVWC is an educational station with a radiated power of 14,000 watts. Although it is located on the college campus, WVWC serves not only the college community and the town of Buckhannon, but most of West Virginia and parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Maryland. The station is operated by students with guidance from Donald Singleton, Director of Educational Broadcasting, and Arnold Sayre, Chief Engineer.

WVWC is constantly striving to better serve its listeners by relevant educational programs, live sports coverage, varied selections of music, and the reporting of national, state, and local events as they happen.

The broadcast day was expanded and a carrier current system installed, enabling students in McCuskey, Doney, and Fleming to listen to WVWC-FM on their AM radios.

WASP Strives for Improvement

The Wesleyan Association of Secretarial Personnel is open to all full-time secretaries of the Wesleyan campus. The three goals of Wasp include working toward the betterment of the entire campus, including the secretarial personnel; voicing ideas on campus problems or ideas relating to the secretaries; and having adequate representation in secretarial affairs.

Religious Life Council Acts as Co-Ordinator

The Religious Life Council co-ordinates the activities of a number of committees, the prominent ones being the Sunday Morning Worship Committee, Consortium Committee for Religious Concern, "Your Thing With God," the Coffee House Committee, and the Committee for Visitation to the Holbrook Nursing Home. Under experimentation are open-ended discussion sessions on matters of campus concern.

SNEA Explores Educational Field

President Burdie Kurtz opens the first meeting of the SNEA.

The Morris B. Shawkey chapter of Student National Education Association consists of 150 members advised by Miss Davis. The chapter meets every third Thursday of the month with a variety of programs following each meeting. The program for January consisted of a panel of student teachers discussing the Block System and their experiences in student teaching.

The special service project this year consisted of sponsoring a child at the Weston State Hospital at Christmas. The association raised funds for the project by selling baked goods.

Lois Plank, Barb Ringleb, Anna Curzzi, and Marion Bosworth listen to how the SNEA can function effectively.

Jeanne Christensen and Sue Steward received their membership cards while Andy Hileman takes a break during the dues collection.

Every student nurse is eligible to become a member of SNOW, The Student Nurses of Wesleyan. SNOW attempts to promote professional and social unity among nursing students and prepares the student for membership in the professional organization.

One of SNOW's special projects is Christmas caroling in the hospitals in Buckhannon and Clarksburg. SNOW also has a special recognition service for the sophomore student nurses before they begin work in the hospital and holds fund-raising projects to send representatives to the State Student Nurse Convention.

Sitzmark Travels to Wispand Seven Springs

Everyone has his ups and downs!

The Sitzmark Ski Club gives both beginners and more accomplished skiers a chance to ski on field trips to ski resorts. About 40 of the 100 active members took a weekend trip in January to Seven Springs in Champion, Pennsylvania, and a one-day trip in February to WISP in Deep Creek, Maryland. To finance their trips, the members held several fund raising activities, including food sales and a dance.

Donna Miller eagerly(?) awaits a trip down the slope.

P.E.M. Club Delivers "Care Bags"

The Women's Physical Education Majors and Minors Club aims at bringing together all physical education majors and minors as a working group. The organization operates under student leadership and faculty advising. This year the club performed a major fund-raising project. It delivered "care bags" the night before exams to those students whose parents replied to their offer. This project required much effort on the part of all members. The money will go to scheduling trips and athletic events.

The Campus Center Program Board is concerned with the broad areas of social, cultural, and recreational activities of the campus community. The CCPB consists of students planning for students — the most intellectual, unique, and intense programming on the campus level.

CCPB plays a vital role in the total educational process by employing every available means of programming possible. The board's activities take place in the Benedum Campus Center, which serves as a place for needed relaxation from the academic routine. The Campus Center and CCPB are meant to be, and should be, a unifying force and the center of campus life and activity.

Members explain the functions of CCPB at the freshman activities seminar.

CCPB Committees Move Through

Through posters, fliers, announcements, publications, and so on, the Publicity Committee keeps the campus in touch with all CCPB happenings. Handling a heavy job, the co-chairmen and their committee are always seeking new and surprising methods of reaching disinterested and uninformed students.

The Cultural Committee's programming falls in the areas of international films, art films, discussion groups, art, and sculpture. Special entertainment is provided in the Coffee House Circuit and jazz nights. The Liberal Education Series co-sponsors several programs with this committee.

Activities of the Year

The Recreation Committee, with its use of the Junior Olympic swimming pool, bowling lanes, ping-pong, and pocket billiards, provides many hours of activity and fun. From scuba, lifesaving, water safety instruction, and leisure swimming, to tournament league teams and exhibitions, this committee takes one away from the academic routine. This year the Recreation Committee instigated the varsity bowling team.

The Social Committee's main functions are planning casual and formal dances and choosing modern movies for the entire campus. They also sponsor such things as talent shows, fashion shows, teas, Homecoming activities, and May Weekend activities.

Pharos Members Combine Array of Skills

The Pharos staff produced an imaginative weekly newspaper this year, under the editorship of Judy Richmond. Mrs. Janet McCoy was the faculty advisor. The paper alternated between a four-page and an eight-page spread each week.

Printed by the Republican Delta, the Pharos experimented with a new type of layout, new front page spreads, and various feature stories.

Murmurmontis Captures Wesleyan's Development

With the cooperation of the students, faculty, and administration, the Murmurmontis staff strove to adequately cover all aspects of the college community and publish an unbiased and innovative annual.

Under the leadership of editor Nancy Baker, assistant editor Mary Jo Hodgman, and advisor Mrs. Arminta Baldwin, the staff worked to portray Wesleyan's development. Together the staff also sponsored a picture sale and the 1970 Murmurmontis Queen Contest. Robin Linsenmann, representative of Zeta Tau Alpha, won the competition.

Honors

Wesleyan encourages students to strive for excellence in all fields of endeavor. Most honoraries recognize students for outstanding achievement in particular fields of study or interest. Also Soquinta, Haught Literary Society, and Sigma Eta Sigma recognize students for overall academic excellence; and Omicron Delta Kappa honors men who are leaders on campus. These honoraries encourage further growth and achievement through lectures, discussions, and practical experience, such as the One Act Plays put on by Alpha Psi Omega. Also, seventeen Wesleyan students were honored this year for their scholarship, leadership, academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship, service to the school, and future promise by being named for Who's Who Among American Colleges.

Delta Psi Kappa Furthers Aims of Physical Education

As the enrollment in physical education increased at this school, a definite need was felt for an organization for women which would further the aims and ideals of the profession. The result was the installment of Delta Psi Kappa, affiliated with the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

As the founders of Wesleyan's annual May Sing, Delta Psi Kappa acts as the honor guard each year. The organization is also in charge of the concession stand at football games.

Alpha Beta Alpha Honors Wesleyan Library Students

Alpha Omicron is the WVWC chapter of Alpha Beta Alpha, the National Undergraduate Library Science Fraternity. Its objectives are to further the professional knowledge of its members, to promote fellowship, and to serve as a recruiting agency for librarians.

The Alpha Omicron Chapter was installed in Wesleyan's campus last year. Its activities included sharing the experiences of those who worked in libraries over the vacation and the intermester, sending clothing to a young man at Weston through Penny Penrose's project, and listening to several guest speakers.

Advisors are Miss Stockert and Mr. Swarthout.

Seated: S. Victor, T. Lee, B. Ayers, M. Ferry, N. Spring, B. Reseter, J. Barton. Standing: Mr. Swarthout, N. Halsey, Mrs. Balli, P. Pinson, Mrs. Miles, S. Clemens, C. Baran, D. Horst, Mr. Crutchfield.

Alpha Psi Omega Shows Dramatic Skill

The Alpha Rho Cast is the WVWC chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, a national honorary dramatics fraternity. Its objectives are to stimulate interest in dramatic activities on campus and in the community, to secure all the advantages and mutual helpfulness provided by a large organization, and to reward students for their work in productions staged by the WVWC theater by electing them to membership. This year it sponsored three one act plays and a student written musical for May Weekend.

Omicron Delta Kappa Unites Campus Leaders

Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society, recognizes and encourages achievement in scholarship, athletics, student government, social and religious affairs, publications, and speech, music and the other arts. It desires to bring together in one body, for the general good of the institution, all leaders in the various phases of college activities. The society not only honors men of high quality, but also fosters communication between faculty and students.

Pi Kappa Nu Encourages Professional Attitude

Pi Kappa Nu, the national Home Economics honorary, promotes the professional attitude among home economics majors. This honorary organization, upholding the ideals of West Virginia Wesleyan, was founded in 1967. Activities carried include tapping, initiation, and special meetings.

Sigma Tau Delta Promotes Mastery of English

Sigma Tau Delta, the national English honorary society, attempts to advance the study of chief literary masterpieces, encourage worthwhile reading, promote the mastery of written expression, and foster a spirit of fellowship among students specializing in English language and literature. This was a building year for the chapter at Wesleyan after reorganizing last year.

Psi Chi Advances Science of Psychology

Psi Chi, the national honor society in psychology, serves two major goals. It provides academic prestige to initiates by the mere fact of membership, and it provides the spark to nurture the ability of the individual member. The purpose of Psi Chi is "to advance the science of psychology and to encourage, stimulate, and maintain scholarship of the individual member in all fields."

First Row: C. Sink, C. Bryan, K. Blount, L. Plank, K Koebley. Second Row: G. Runion, L. Stewart, G. Hays, J. Shomo, P. Penrose, B. Hughes, J. Epperly, L. Holbrook, E. Anderson, W. Matchett, J. Groves, T. Thomas. Third Row: S. Schuman, D. Larsen, F. Cummin, J. Thompson, D Wamsley, D Goff, Dr. Bone, M Healy.

The Arts Recognize Special Talent

Alpha Phi Gamma, the national journalism fraternity, attempts to "recognize individual ability and achievement in journalistic pursuits in colleges and universities; to serve and promote the welfare of the college through journalism; to establish cordial relationships between students and members of the profession; and to fraternally unite congenial students interested in journalism." The Delta Sigma Chapter was established at Wesleyan last year. Its members come basically from Pharos and Murmurmontis.

First Row: B. Roth, M. Lindeman, B. Miller, C. Simpson, B Graumann, J. Richmond. Second Row: B. Hughes, M. J. Hodgeman, J. Beck, N. Baker, R. Kappa Pi, the national art honorary, involves the outstanding art students on campus. To be a member the student must have had twelve hours in art studies with a 3.0 average.

Business Is Recognized By Honor Societies

Delta Mu Delta and the Honorary Business Society both recognize Wesleyan students in Business Administration for outstanding academic achievement. Wesleyan's chapter of Delta Mu Delta, the national business honorary, was established last year. Members must have completed at least half the requirements for their Baccalaureate Degree, must have a cumulative average of at least 3.2, and must be in the top 20% of their class. Members of the Honorary Business Society must have a 3.0 average in all business subjects. Mrs. Parker is the advisor for both societies.

First Row: M. J. Hodgman, M. J. Dorsey, J. Porter, Mrs. J. B. Parker, Advisor; B. Spencer, J. Thompson. Second Row: D. Damcott, S. Easias, D. Black, L. Spencer, J. Glascow.

New Honoraries Are Initiated at Wesleyan

M. Fisher, T. Stephens, A. Earle, J. Richmond, D. Klein, Dr. Coston, Mr. Sharpe.

The History honorary, Phi Alpha Theta, was introduced on Wesleyan's campus last year. It is an international organization with 400 chapters throughout the country. Requirements for membership are a 3.1 average in history courses and a 3.0 in two-thirds of all other courses. The chapter is presently working in conjunction with the Glauner Historical Society to carry out programs and bring in speakers.

Kappa Delta Pi, the national education honorary, recognizes students in education for outstanding academic achievement. The Mu Zeta Chapter was installed on Wesleyan's campus last year. Members must have completed at least 9 semester hours of education courses.

Seated: G. Tanner, S. Shumann, P. Jubin, L. Plank, R. Linsenmann, S. Thomas, R. Kurtz. Standing: B. Nittoli, L. Miller, C. Orndorff, J. Gallant, M. Bannister, P. Pinson, B. Roth, Mr. Neil, K. Smith, B. Grauman.

Outstanding Math Majors and Minors Are Honored

The Math Honorary attempts to foster interest in mathematics to honor students who are outstanding in math. Its members must be both math majors or minors, must have completed at least two semesters in Calculus. This year the club took several trips to various companies and had several guest speakers. Mr. Berry is the sponsor.

Seated: M. Dorsey, C. Patterson, L. Holbrook, J Bottone, S. Wertz. Standing: D. Burgess, A Orebaugh, T. Boller, Mr. Berry, P Garrett.

Benzene Ring Fosters Enjoyment of Chemistry

The Benzene Ring is the oldest organization at Wesleyan, founded in 1921. Its objectives are to stimulate a greater interest in chemistry and to encourage academic interest in this field.

Projects of the Benzene Ring this year included the annual Benzene Ring Breakfast, presentation of the Nicholas Hyma Award, a science fair, participation in the Awards Assembly, and the sponsoring of speakers for the campus community.

First Row: L. Cantley, K. Patrick, E. Jones, C. Patterson. Second Row: R. Gillet, M. Edmonds, S. Sebert, B. Sherwood, J. Arter.

Beta Beta Beta Encourages Interest in Biology

The Beta Mu Chapter of Beta Beta Beta is an honorary society for students with a high scholastic standing and a special aptitude for biology. It attempts to encourage and cultivate intellectual interest in the natural sciences, to make noteworthy contributions to the life of sciences in the field of education, and to encourage scientific research. This year the society tagged and identified trees on campus, established tutors for biology students, and kept rooms open for study. Dr. Rossbach is the advisor.

B. Berry, C. Kiser, D Giardina, L. Hottinger, P. Cyphers, M. P Kesecker, Mrs. Baldwin, B. Gentile, C. Kroskey, B. Hankins, E. Glime.

Honoraries Promote Scholastic Excellence

The Haught Literary Society attempts to stimulate and provide outlets for the interests of women in literature, fine arts, leadership, and service to the community. It has 20 members. Each spring new members are elected by the old members on the basis of their scholarship and activities. This year the society held monthly dinner meetings with guest speakers or special programs and sponsored the Smarty Party for freshman women with a 3.0 average or above. Mrs. McCoy is the advisor.

Sigma Eta Sigma is a co-educational society for all juniors or seniors with a cumulative average of 3.35 or above. Its objectives are to recognize outstanding academic achievement, to foster a community of scholars who demonstrate academic excellence, to provide honor students with an opportunity for informal discussion, to foster a closer relationship between faculty and student members, and to uphold the ideals and traditions of WVWC. Dr. Mow is the advisor.

Soquinta, the sophomore women's scholastic honorary, attempts to exemplify and foster a scholarly attitude on campus and to honor all sophomore women with a cumulative average of 3.5 or above. This year the group met for monthly dinners with guest speakers. A dormitory bake sale was held for funds for the spring banquet for freshman women. Mrs. Baldwin is the advisor.

Outstanding Seniors Are Recognized

Outstanding students were honored both at the Spring Awards Assembly and the Senior Convocation for a variety of achievements, including outstanding academic performance, participation in extracurricular activities and outstanding achievements in a particular field. They received trophies, certificates, gifts or scholarships.

Loyette Miller and Lewis Cantley were honored as Wesley Ann and Andy. The Pharos Best Athlete Award went to Jerry Benton and class scholarship leaders were Kathy Patrick, Geoffrey Haddad, Judy Simpson and Lewis Cantley. Students for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities were named as well as various departmental and organizational awards.

At the Senior Convocation, Cheryl Hardy received the Hatfield Award for a senior who has demonstrated proficiency in one of the arts; Thomas Ryan received the Humanities Scholarship and Lewis Cantley received the Okey J. Stout Scholarship. Also honored were Gary Ritner, Sheridan Watson Bell Religious Life Influence Award and John Campbell, Francis Asbury Award. Wesleyan keys for scholarship and activities were presented at this time.

Liberal and Fine Arts

Wesleyan offers its students many educational opportunities outside of the classroom through its liberal and fine arts programs. The Liberal Education Series made a rich and varied contribution to the educational life of Wesleyan by offering lectures, plays, concerts, demonstrations, and films. Intermester program offered 28 students a meaningful experience through two history courses, an opera workshop, and a human relations seminar. "Twelfth Night," "Summertree," "Women Are Like That," and the One-Act Plays gave students a chance to actively participate in the enjoyment of these productions.

An opportunity of a different type was provided by the coffee house this year. It gave students a friendly, congenial place to meet and talk with other students and enjoy entertainment.

Over the years, Wesleyan's liberal and fine arts have been presented in a variety of programs. Shown on this page is the 1961 "Wesleyantics" of Theta Chi Fraternity and Fiore de Henrique, sculptress, guest lecturer for this year's Liberal Education Series.

LES Has Another Successful Year

Sculptress, Fiore de Henrique, demonstrated her love for clay in an exuberant convocation in Wesley Chapel to astonished viewers.

The Liberal Education Series, in its second year at Wesleyan, provided 54 academic and cultural events to enrich and broaden the liberal education of each student. Freshmen were required to attend 15 events a semester and upperclassmen were expected, but not required, to attend a variety of events. Freshmen took a significant part in evaluating the program by filling out computer cards.

The program included noted lecturers who spoke on such relevant topics as prevention of assault, abortion, politics, drugs, the mystics, ecology, and the black heritage. It included interesting and entertaining films such as Taming of the Shrew, Black History: Lost, Stolen or Strayed, The Servant, and The Making of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid.

The Trinidad Steel Band, Pro Musica Arts Trio, and Betty Allen, soprano soloist, as well as a lutenist, harpsichordist, organist, and duo-guitarist performed.

Two plays, Arms and the Man and The Diary of Adam and Eve were also presented.

Reverend Robert Schuller discussed his "Solution to Every Problem" with students.

Dr. Katherine Ottinger's topic on abortions held the attention of the student body at the LES convocation.

Paul Duke, NBC Correspondent, chats informally after his talk on "The New Politics of the 70's."

Twelfth Night

Twelfth Night, a comedy by William Shakespeare, was presented by the Wesleyan College Theater November 19, 20, 21 and 22. Mr. Charles Presar directed it, assisted by David Belcher.

The cast, in order of appearance, was: Orsino, Bowie Grant; Curio, Steve Morris; Valentine, William Turner; Viola (Cesario), Diane Davis; Sea Captain, John Donohue; Sailors, Marc Martin and Samuel McWilliams; Sir Toby Belch, William Wilson; Maria, Juanita Hoffman; Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Roger Williams; Feste, Timothy Harper; Olivia, Loyette Miller; Malvolio, Lester Cotto-Thorner; Sebastian, Victor Virts; Antonio, Marc Harman; Fabian, David Belcher; Officers, Marc Martin and Samuel McWilliams; and Priest, Lloyd Spencer.

The stage manager and scene designer were John Shaffer and Larry Reed, respectively. The technical directors were Mrs. Sandra Presar, in charge of make-up and costumes, and William Turner, in charge of lighting and set construction.

Lester Cotto-Thorner (Malvolio) reads the forged letter unknowingly.

Bill Wilson (Sir Toby Belch) enjoys a tankard of ale.

Roger Williams (Sir Andrew Aguecheek) fights off the enemy.

Tim Harper, disguised as a priest, is pictured with Lester Cotto-Thorner who has been held prisoner.

The three men look on from their hiding place.

Olivia (Loyette Miller) as she unites with her lover Sebastian (Brent Virts).

Viola (Diane Davis) finds out all the news on her brother from the sea captain (John Donohue) in the first scene of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night.

Professional Players Appear on Campus

The Petkoff's daughter is threatened by the Chocolate Cream soldier.

The dashing hero, Sergius, displays his military medals.

The National Players performed Arms and the Man, an amusing tongue-in-cheek comedy by George Bernard Shaw, February 3. The play, set in Bulgaria in 1885-86, gently and entertainingly makes fun of overly romanticized ideas about love, war, and honor. The play concerns the antics of the Petkoffs, an aristocratic Bulgarian family, Sergius, a dashing military hero who is engaged to the Petkoff's daughter, and Bluntshchli, a captain in the Swiss army.

The National Players is the oldest and most highly respected touring Theatrical Repertoire Company in the United States. They have travelled giving road shows every year for 21 years. They perform both classical and modern plays, including works by Sophocles, Aeschylus, Aristophanes, Shakespeare, Moliere, and Shaw. They have played in 39 states, Canada, off-Broadway, on network television, by special invitation to the White House, and in nine overseas tours under the Department of Defense in Korea, Japan, Italy, France, Germany, and the Arctic Circle.

Also, the Alpha Omega Players, another touring group, performed The Diary of Adam and Eve here April 20.

Cebe Marple was in command of the scene as he dictates to Marc Martin in When Shakespeare's Men Get Together.

Alpha Psi Omega Produces Several Short Plays

Two one-act plays and two sketches from a third play were presented by Alpha Psi Omega, the national dramatics honorary fraternity, October 2 and 3.

Sorry, Wrong Number by Lucille Fletcher dramatized the plight of a lonely woman who accidently overheard a plan for murder through a bad telephone connection and became terrified for fear she would be silenced as a consequence. Pam Weiss was a director.

In When Shakespeare's Men Get Together, written by Charles George and directed by Jay Boyd, Shakespeare's most famous are concerned with finding the funds to financially satisfy their wives.

Two sketches from Anybody and Anybody Else by William Saroyan were directed by Juanita Hoffman.

First Row: N. Ports, V. O'Neill, M. Martin, D. Lockhart, D. Kelly, C. Detrick, J. Cook, C. Chamberlain, J. Hoffman, J. Olland, J. Donohue. Second Row: S. Morris, J. Cogar, J. Shaw, P. Weiss, B. Pancake, M. Burk, J. Boyd, C. Marple, B. Duke, G. Darr, T. Harper, J. Shaffer, D. Davis, B. Wilson, B. Norton, L. Miller.

Summertree Delights Audience

Dave Denault lamented over the useless killing of the little boy, Jonathan Bright.

Dave Denault and his girl, Carol Beth Chamberlin, make plans for the future.

Dave Denault was given last minute touchups before going on stage.

Loyette Miller protected the little boy, Jonathan Bright, from his father, Jay Boyd.

"The Man Who Killed Time" Was Presented by Wesleyan Players

Bill Wilson, Pam Weiss, and Cebe Marple were skeptical about the burnt wedding feast.

Cheri Detrick played the part of a bride.

Sally Long played hide-and-go-seek.

Play Production Classes Presented One Act Plays

Judi Markel (Ellen) asks Gregg Darr (Harry) how he feels towards her.

Gregg Darr proves his love to Judi Markel.

Three one-act plays were presented completely by students April 16 and 17. The directors were members of the Play Production class taught by Mr. Presar. Each of the eight members were required to direct a play and the three best ones were selected by the class to be presented publicly.

"The Apple Tree" by Harnick and Bach was based on the first act of Twain's "The Diary of Adam and Eve" and directed by Jeff Sumner. The cast was Adam, Roger Williams; Eve, Ruth Lantz; Snake, Dave Denault; and accompanists, Pam Bucher and Lota Marie Wilfong.

"Fumed Oak" by Noel Coward and directed by David Belcher, was a two-scene comedy concerning a married man who grows tired of his wife, daughter and mother-in-law. The cast was Doris Gow, Mary K. Leavitt; Henry Gow, Lester Cotto-Thorner; Elise Gow, Jo Allen and Mrs. Tockett, Joan Olland.

"Luv" by Murray Schisgal, was a satire concerning a woman who falls in love with her husband's best friend, directed by Cebe Marple. Judi Markel played Ellen Manville and Gregg Darr played Harry Berlin.

Harry and Ellen fight over their "Luv."

Music Department Presented Opera

The maid, Rebecca White, restrained the two suitors from seeing their ladies.

"Cosi Fan Tutte" Women Are Like That

"Cosi Fan Tutte," or "Women Are Like that," a comic opera, by Mozart was presented by the music department February 26 and 27. The story set in 18th century Naples, concerned Don Alfonso's (Tim Harper) attempt to prove his belief that all women are fickle. Comic situations resulted from his experiments with the fiancees of two of his friends, but the fiancees proved that they were really faithful and the opera ended happily. Although the opera was written in Italian, the Wesleyan cast sang it in English.

The cast included, Fiofeiligi and Dorabela, sisters living in Naples, Carolyn Dees and Cheryl Hardy; Guglielmo, officer betrothed to Fiordiligi, Jeffrey Sumner; Ferrando, officer betrothed to Dorabella, Michael Isaacs; Despina, Chambermaid to the ladies, Rebecca White; and Don Alfonso, an old Philosopher, Timothy Harper.

Musical Director was Mr. Larry Parsons and Orchestral Director was Dr. C. Buel Agey. Mr. Charles Presar helped with the direction and set construction, and Mrs. Presar helped with costumes and make-up. Michael Coulter was the stage manager.

The cast, understudies, and some of the stage crew came back to school about a week and a half before the beginning of second semester to begin rehearsing for the opera. They practiced about 9 hours a day. Those who wished to participate in the opera as part of the intermester program did additional reading about the history of opera, opera styles and stage movements, and information concerning "Women are Like That." They received two hours' credit.

Long hours of practice during Intermester resulted in the final success of the opera.

Intermester Involved All Aspects of American Life

This year four different intermester programs offered students a different kind of learning experience than the kind ordinarily encountered in the classroom. The program, now in its second year, gave twenty-eight students and five faculty members a chance to explore new experiences together.

Mr. Monoski guided two students from his Introduction to Non-Western Cultures class in the reading of six novels of India. He made the assignment with the idea that a novel stimulates a deep understanding of a culture and can help one develop an empathy for that culture. He explained that, "in our Western Civilization we have created the novel as a social commentary. The Indian novel was created out of the impact of England on India. They have developed this same kind of appreciation for the novel." The students read the books individually and returned to school two days before the second semester began to discuss them together. They also spent several more evenings together after the second semester started.

With Mr. Sharpe's guidance, two other students did original historical research, working with diaries, newspapers, letters, and other primary sources just as a historian would. One worked in Washington researching the immediate popular response to John Marshall's Marbury vs. Madison case. The other student worked in his own home county researching the feelings of Montgomery County toward the Civil War. The two students then wrote their findings, observing stringent restrictions on style and form so that the papers would be of publishable quality.

Another group of students came back to school a week and a half before the second semester began to work on Mozart's opera Women Are Like That under the direction of Mr. Larry Parsons. They worked nine hours a day on the opera. Not everyone who worked in the opera took it as an intermester credit, but those who did also did some reading on the history and styles of opera, stage movements, and the history and circumstances concerning Women Are Like Like. They continued to practice in the evenings until the opera was given in February.

Another group of students went to Jackson's Mill for a week long Human Relations Workshop with Dr. Warner and Mr.

Norum. Mr. Norum explained that the emphasis was on "Learning about living with other people in a more alert, involved kind of way than people are ordinarily able to do." There were three kinds of activities to help them do this. Sensitivity sessions were designed to help each person become more aware of himself and of others as human beings. The group also discussed what kind of a world they would build if they were the last survivors of World War III. They also participated in activities such as arts and crafts. Mr. Norum and Dr. Warner went not as teachers with the usual inhibitions and barriers that exist between students and teachers, but as individual members of the group. Both had had some previous experience with this type of activity. The situation remained very fluid often with one acting as group leader while the other was simply a member of the group.

This program, designed to give everyone involved a new and exciting learning experience, was generally considered to be a success both last year and this year. Unfortunately, the Intermester program will be impossible next year because the break between semesters has been shortened and there will not be time.

Those in the Human Relations Workshop take time for learning about living.

"The Universe" — Wesleyans Newest Night Spot

Junior Panhellenic and Alpha Delta Pi sold their goods at the May Weekend Coffee House Carnival.

This year the Coffee House provided a comfortable, friendly place for students to go to share with each other and have a good time. It was open nearly every Friday and Saturday night and some Sunday nights, usually featuring student entertainment and occasionally showing movies. It also sponsored several dances, two student art shows, several professional entertainers, and a student art show and carnival May Weekend. It was open during finals, and on weeknights second semester for students to study, play records or do whatever they liked.

A group of students started the Coffee House last year as a project for a religious class. This year a new group continued the project in a new house, owned and maintained by the college, on Camden Avenue. The Coffee House Committee managed and financed the Coffee House independently, occasionally seeking advice or help from Dr. Warner or Mr. Norum. Anne Barnes and Bob Ackerman were chairmen.

The committee plans to continue the Coffee House next year, expanding its programs. They would like to set up discussion groups with professors on interesting or unusual subjects. They would also like to get the Coffee House Circuit to perform in the Coffee House instead of in the Social Hall because of the more personal atmosphere in the Coffee House. The committee also plans a retreat next fall for its members to get to know each other better and to plan the year's activities.

Variety of Concerts Enrich the Campus

James Bonn, harpsichordist, chatted with Mr. Parsons after the concert.

Cheryl Eccles is accompanied on the piano during her senior recital by freshman Ginger Rogers.

Many hours of practice culminated in Cheryl Cramer's senior recital.

Every senior music major must give a recital sometime during the year. The area chosen is his applied field, and the recital is considered as a part of his comprehensive exams. Seven students gave recitals this year: Pamela Bucher, Cheryl Cramer, Cheryl Eccles, Cheryl Hardy, Ronald Say, Barbara Sherburne, and Frank Shomo. Recitals demonstrate to the music professors what the student has learned, help the student learn something about performing, and enrich the cultural experience of those who attend the recital.

The student decides where the recital will be and begins preparing for it early in the year. Some even begin late in their junior year. With the help of his music professors, the student selects music from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and Contemporary periods. Vocalists must sing selections in German, French, Italian, and English. All the music professors attend the recital and evaluate the performer. He must be given a passing grade for his recital, as well as on the oral, written, and piano proficiency exams in order to graduate.

Traditions

The spirit of Wesleyan is captured in its traditions. Excitement, eagerness, and anticipation dominate freshman week. The spirit of originality and individualism is evidenced in the float designs and dorm decorations of Homecoming weekend. May Sing provides the opportunity for a feeling of pride in a particular group as they sing in honor of the May Queen. The Hanging of the Greens and the Tree Lighting ceremony help to show us how much our lives are involved with the traditions of the past. The selection of queens to reign over the various campus events remains a traditional spirit of admiration for beauty. The spirit of Wesleyan permeates every aspect of campus life, but it is especially evident in its traditions.

Miss Wesleyan of 1932 is pictured on the opposite page. The 1971 Homecoming Queen is seen lighting the traditional torch to signify the official beginning of this special weekend. Also shown is a scene from the freshman-parent orientation picnic.

Anxiety, Confusion, Excitement for Freshmen

The atmosphere was one of anxiety and confusion as well as one of eagerness and excitement. The purpose of Freshman Week was to help Freshmen get acquainted with each other and with Wesleyan's campus and its many programs and activities, but it probably created more questions than answers in the minds of the students.

It included myriads of meetings to acquaint students with such things as the honor code, LES, Community Council, clubs, the campus center, and the library. It also meant meeting with advisors and registering, which due to preregistration was easy . . . as long as no classes had to be changed.

It meant eating lunch on the lawn the first day, waiting in line and talking to the next person, remembering a face and forgetting a name, buying books, shaking hands with President Martin and exchanging confidences with a roommate.

The week did not answer all their questions, but it helped the Freshmen get to know each other and to make them aware of the many facets of Wesleyan.

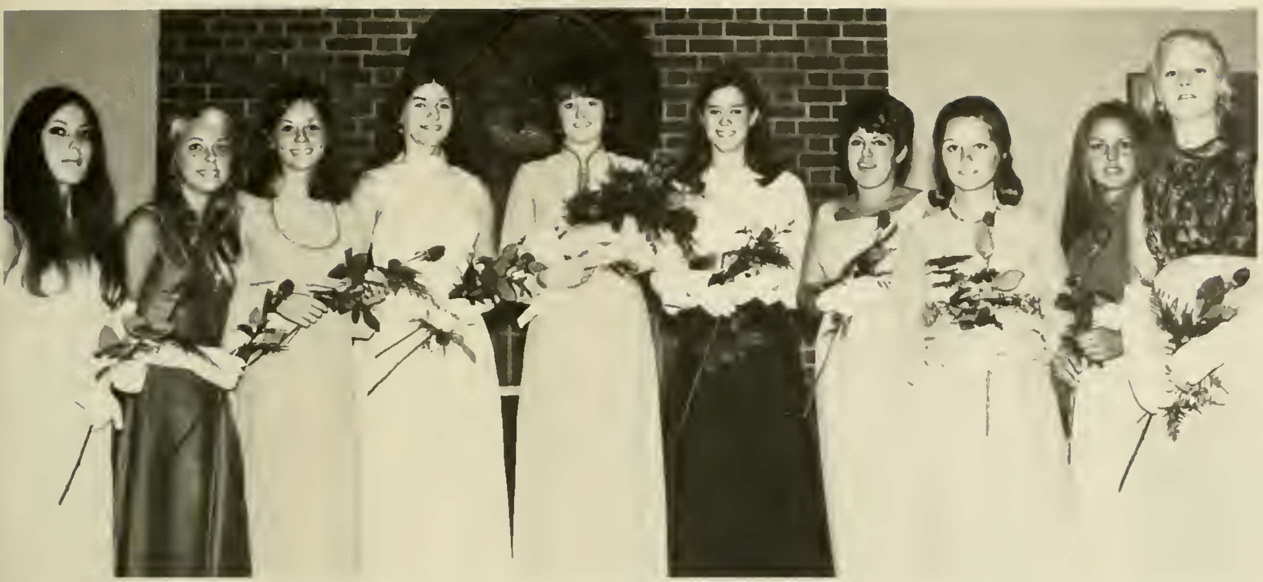
Robin Linseman Murmurmontis Queen

Robin Linseman, representative of Zeta Tau Alpha, was crowned Murmurmontis Queen October 9 in the Social Hall. Jan Reid of Alpha Gamma Delta was first runner-up; and Chris Wege, sponsored by Chi Phi, was second runner-up.

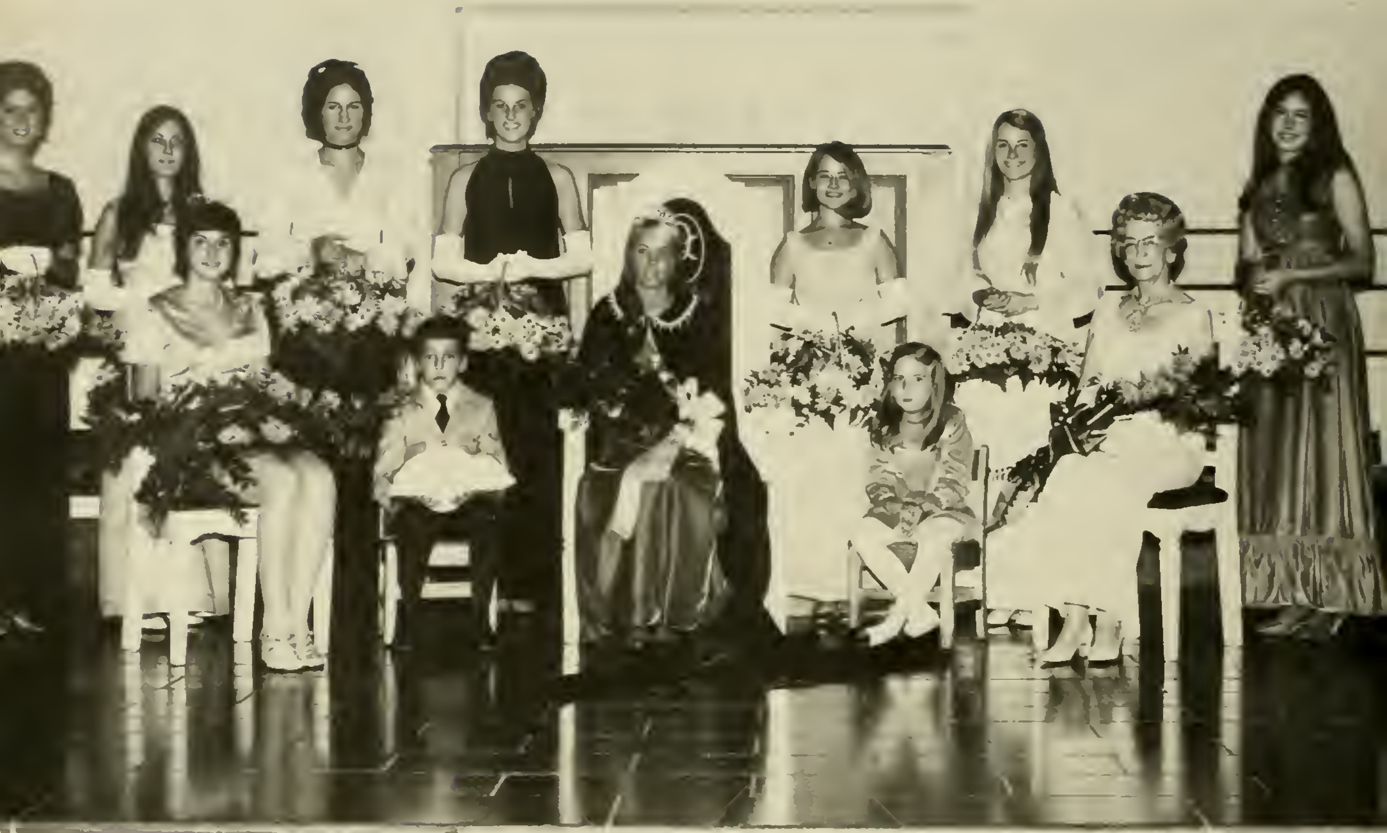
The girls appeared in suits and evening gowns in the annual contest. It was emceed by Jim Okonak and entertainment was provided by the Jazz Quintet.

The other contestants were Linda Krakowski, Alpha Delta Pi; Judy Stump, Alpha Xi Delta; Ruth Mercogliano, Kappa Alpha; Chris Cress, AWS; Barbara Harris, Phi Sigma Epsilon; Karen Fischer, Theta Xi; and Candy Dollman, Theta Chi.

Perce Ross, Pam Cutright and Christine Wildt judged the contest.



R. Mercogliano, Kappa Alpha; C. Dollman, Theta Chi; C. Cress, AWS; C. Wege, Chi Phi; R. Linseman, Zeta Tau Alpha; J. Reid, Alpha Gamma Delta; B. Harris, Phi Sigma Epsilon; K. Fisher, Theta Xi; J. Stump, Alpha Xi Delta; L. Krakowski, Alpha Delta Pi.



First Row: K. Barefoot, 1969 Queen; P. Shafer; C. Dollman, 1970 Queen; S. Presar, Mrs. Boetticher, Parade Marshall. Second Row: L. Hall, R. Mercogliano, C. Vigilanti, M. Wilson, M. Wiseman, P. Hain, P. Hess.

Homecoming Roars With the Twenties

The Twenties grooved with the Homecoming Weekend October 23-25.

Alumni and students enjoyed sunny, clear weather, autumn leaves, and three days packed with activities.

Friday night Candy Dollman was crowned Homecoming Queen and Mrs. Edward L. Boetticher was introduced as parade marshall in a ceremony in the Chapel, and later students cheered and clapped through the traditional bonfire and skit put on by the cheerleaders and majorettes.

The parade on Saturday morning was filled with colorful imaginative floats. Alpha Gamma Delta and Kappa Alpha took the prize for the best floats and Alpha Delta Pi and Theta Xi had the best banners. Agnes Howard Hall, decorated like a theater of the twenties, had the best dorm decorations with Flemming Hall coming in second with Bonnie and Clyde. The football game with Waynesburg, Alumni Banquet, Cider Fest, and Homecoming Dance with the Chuck Rosen Sextet filled the rest of the busy day.

A jazz concert was presented on Sunday to bring to an end a totally stimulating weekend of fun in reflecting upon the past.

Winter Spirit Encompasses Wesleyan

The Christmas season officially opened on Wesleyan's campus with the Hanging of the Greens and the Tree Lighting Ceremony December 6.

The annual Chorale Christmas Concert was presented the same evening in the Chapel, which was decorated with greens tied with red ribbons. The hanging of the Greens ceremony followed. It included readings from the Scriptures which tells the Christmas story, Christmas hymns and carols, and the actual hanging of the holly, ivy, mistletoe, and rosemary on a wreath at the chancel.

Snow flurries and nippy air enhanced the Christmas atmosphere as the crowd, carrying burning tapers, moved to a giant fir tree in front of the library. After caroling and greetings from President Martin and Bill Becker, Community Council President, a cry of delight went up from the crowd as the tree was lighted.

Beautiful sunny weather, visiting families and friends, balloons and footlong hotdogs, bicycles and Negro Spirituals, a rock band and a May Queen all contributed to the special spirit of May Weekend. "Can You Feel the Spirit" was the theme for the weekend.

It began Friday night with the McKendree Spring concert. It continued Saturday morning with Phi Sigma Epsilon taking the honors for the bicycle race. The Coffee House held a carnival and a student art show Saturday afternoon. Saga held a picnic on Jenkins parking lot Saturday evening with Hell's Gate providing the music. Mary Esther Grubb was crowned May Queen later that evening and the May Singers honored her with Negro Spirituals. In the Women's Division, Women's Independents took first place and Agnes Howard Hall second. The Spirit of '71 took first place in the Men's Division while Phi Sigma Epsilon took second. The Black Independents won first place in the Co-ed. Division while Fleming Hall won second. Ronald Say and Barbara Sherburne were honored as the best directors. May Sing was followed by a dance in the Social Hall featuring the "Male Box."

The worship service Sunday morning focused on Negro Spirituals with Dr. Grant S. Shockley, the guest speaker.

"We've Only Just Begun" Is Theme of Wesleyan's Eighty-first Commencement Activities

Commencement activities involve more than the traditional Sunday morning receiving of the diploma. Wesleyan holds a weekend of special programs for graduating seniors, their parents and guests.

Baccalaureate was held Friday evening in Wesley Chapel. On Saturday morning, the college held one of its traditional picnics on the campus lawn.

Wesleyan's graduating nurses received their caps and pins in a special ceremony on Saturday afternoon. The evening brought the parent-senior banquet and a special senior talent program. These activities are pictured here along with senior class members receiving their caps and gowns for Sunday's ceremony.

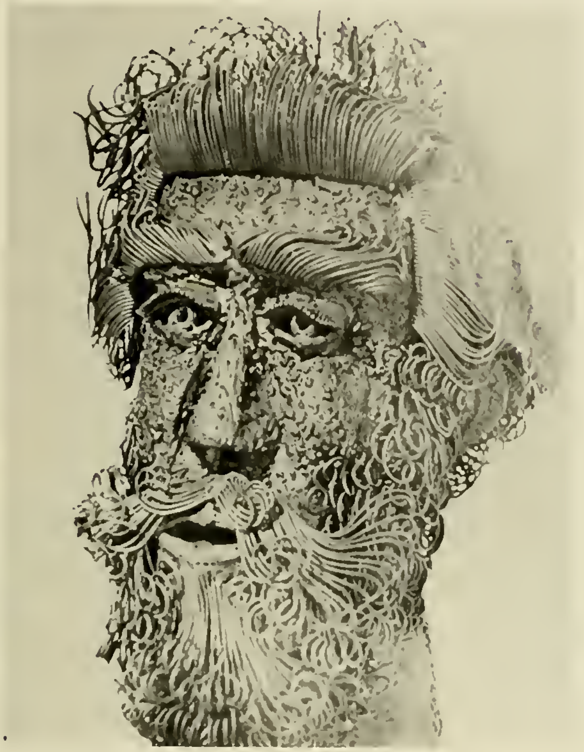
Wesleyan Celebrates Its Eighty-first Commencement

Sunday, May 23, 1971 shined brightly on Wesleyan's graduating class of 1971. Their theme, We've only just begun, seemed so appropriate as many graduated without the prospects of a job for the coming year in their field of study. However, little did that thought dampen their spirits on this special day. The commencement address was given by Scott Munson Cutlip, Professor of Journalism, University of Wisconsin and he presented "A Call for Builders of Bridges" to members of the class of 1971. Honorary degrees were presented to George Cogar, Doctor of Science; Scott Cutlip, Doctor of Letters; Connie Dickens, Doctor of Divinity; Perce Ross, Doctor of Letters; and Thelma Shaw, Doctor of Laws. Dr. Cunningham and President Martin presented and confirmed the candidates for degrees as the class of 1971 marched by to receive their diplomas. A special commencement luncheon closed the official ceremonies for Wesleyan's eighty-first commencement weekend.



Greeks

Wesleyan's four sororities and five fraternities encourage high ideals in scholarship, leadership, character, service; and they foster a feeling of sisterhood and brotherhood among their members. Each Greek organization has its own set of ideals. Rushing and pledging provide each new member with an opportunity to get to know all the members of the fraternity. In addition, each organization sponsors a number of activities that help to draw its members closer together. These include building floats, designing banners for Homecoming, intramural sports, service projects, and planning and enjoying social activities. The fraternities cooperate with each other through the Inter-Fraternity Council to sponsor such activities as rush, intramural sports, and pledging. The Panhellenic Council, consisting of representatives from all the sororities, performs similar functions.

Above are pictured members of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority, and a contemporary representation of Zeus, the father of the Greeks.

Panhellenic Initiates Changes in Rush

President Karen White and advisor Dean McBrair head the Greek organization called Panhellenic Council, whose purpose is to promote healthy competition, cooperation among fraternity women, scholarship, and sisterhood. Panhellenic co-ordinates such sorority activities as Panhellenic teas, Peek-at-Greeks, scholarship banquets, rush, and Greek Week.

I.F.C. Strives for Fraternity Harmony

Doug Monroe, president of Inter-Fraternity Council, feels that the primary importance of the organization is to promote good feeling and better understanding among fraternities, as well as among the college and the community.

He states, "It endeavors to create a spirit of co-operation among the Greeks and to better secure the place of the fraternity in our college life." I.F.C. helps to sponsor Greek Week, intramural sports and rush.

During Homecoming, senior Carol Vigilanti and sophomore Phyllis Hain represented their sorority in the Homecoming Court. The sisters won Honorable Mention with their float "The Apple Pi's Take a Slice Out of Time" and first place with their banner "An ADPi Welcome to the Era of Wonderful Nonsense." Fall softball competition provided ADPi with another first place while the spring pledges of 1970 were awarded with a second place scholarship trophy. Linda Krakowski represented Alpha Delta Pi in the Murmurmontis contest. To finish the year, Alpha Delta Pi took in a delightful pledge class of fifteen new members.

Alpha Gamma Delta's Rush Party Proves Successful

Alpha Gamma Delta sorority abounded in success this year. They began the fall term with a pledge class of ten members. Homecoming brought first place for their float "A Look into the Roaring Twenties" and honorable mention for their banner. Sister Jan Reid represented Alpha Gamma Delta in the Murmurmontis Queen contest and was named first runner-up.

Second semester saw the sorority take eleven pledges after a successful rush party set to the theme of "Oliver." The Alpha Gams were awarded second place in the scholarship honors and Judy Ruskay was chosen junior May attendant.

Together the Alpha Gams sponsored a Korean orphan, went roller skating and donated money for the children at Weston Hospital.

The Golden Quill, the double blue and gold, and happy smiling faces are qualities of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Sponsoring a Christmas party for underprivileged children in Buckhannon, tutoring at the Neighborhood Youth Center, and supporting a foreign child from Korea contribute to the success of Alpha Xi Delta. This year Candy Dollman Jones was crowned Homecoming Queen and sisters Ruth Meriogliano, Marilyn Wilson, Linda Hall Altman, and Martha Wiseman were attandants. Four members of Alpha Xi Delta were honored as fraternity sweethearts. The sorority took two fine pledge classes resulting in 25 new and enthusiastic members.

Reminiscence of Another Wonderful Zeta Year

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha returned to Wesleyan last fall eagerly anticipating another year of participating in a close sisterhood. Early in the year, Zeta was honored when Robin Linsenmann was chosen to be the Murmurmontis Queen. Shortly afterwards, the sisters found themselves working together on the Homecoming float, "Reminiscences . . . Winners All," and the banner which greeted alumnae and other old friends, "S'Wonderful, S'Marvelous . . . You Can All Be Here." Both banner and float won second place.

At the fall scholarship banquet, the spring pledge class was awarded the honors. When December came, the sisters contributed gifts for the children at Weston and gave a Christmas party for mentally retarded children of Buckhannon.

In the spring, the actives won the Panhellenic Scholarship trophy and five sisters were recognized for achieving a perfect 4.0 average during the past two semesters. The Zeta sisters concluded their busy year with the spring pledge formal and participation in the May Sing competition.

With but a short history at Wesleyan, the tradition and brotherhood of Chi Phi has achieved much recognition and respect on campus. PLEDGE

Phi Sigs and rushees admire the Phi Sig trophies.

Under the helm of James Daniels, the brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon unfolded another year of regular activities. Their two pledge formals were planned by 18 spirited pledges and followed by the annual Cardinal and Silver. Members participated actively in intramural sports throughout the year, exhibiting cohesiveness and enthusiasm. The fraternity captured second place in the banner competition during Homecoming and was also presented the Inter-Fraternity Scholarship award. In the spring a seminar was held which brought the group together as a brotherhood to plan next year's social calendar and to make fiscal decisions. Sweetheart Barb Harris represented the fraternity.

Theta Chi Is Intramural Sports Champion

Rushees and brothers give a yell for Theta Chi.

The 1970-71 school year for the brotherhood of Theta Chi fraternity was very successful. Theta Chis won A, B, C league football, A, B, C, and D league volleyball and A, B, C, and D league basketball championships. Many of the brothers play in one varsity athletic sport.

In Homecoming, the brothers won Honorable Mention for their float. The Fall 1970 pledges won the pledge scholarship award. Theta Chi took ten pledges in the fall while in the spring they took five pledges.

Theta Chis play hard to win in football intramurals.

Theta Xi Activities Encourage Unity and Brotherhood

The brothers of Kappa Tau chapter of Theta Xi finished a successful year. The tri-motto for the year was unity, diversity, and brotherhood. They held a Christmas party for the underprivileged children in Buckhannon and collected money for the heart fund. On campus, the fraternity won second place float and first place banner for Homecoming. Four outstanding fall pledges graced the fraternity first semester while second semester saw the brothers take in fourteen more pledge members. The annual Iris Ball was held in the spring and also a spring pledge formal. Sweetheart for the year was Jayne Groves.

Sports

A collegiate sports program has the potential to bring a student body together with a sense of unity and pride, but only if every student becomes involved. Through both intercollegiate and intramural sports, Wesleyan offers many students an opportunity to become personally involved in its sports program. But it is essential that those who are not team members realize the importance of their role as active team supporters. Wesleyan's program is expanding and improving every year. Our swim team was third in the state this year. More and more people are participating in the sports program, especially intramural sports. Greeks, independents, dorm groups, organization members, and even Saga workers compete in football, basketball, and volleyball. Intercollegiate sports at Wesleyan offer football, soccer, field hockey, swimming, basketball, baseball, cross country, track, golf, and tennis.

The 1971 cross country and basketball teams are represented on the opposite page.

On this page are the members of Wesleyan's 1910 baseball team and women's basketball squad of 1905.

Fast Moving Action Describes Fall Intramurals

The intramural football season, directed by Coach Reemsnyder, came to an end with Theta Chi taking all three league titles.

This year the teams played a Round Robin Tournament, in which all three leagues played each team in their division. Due to bad weather and lack of time, the competition had to be operated this way. However, competition was stiff, and Theta Chi struggled for each title.

Eight teams participated in the girls' intramural softball competition. Greeks and independents battled for the championship. Alpha Delta Pi sorority took first place followed by Kappa Phi and Agnes Howard.

The Bobcats led the conference in foul shooting during the first half of the season. Kenny Baylor made All-Conference team and Mark Mendelson made Honorable Mention. The team did not travel to the W.V.I.A.C. tournament this year because of disciplinary reasons. However, with only three seniors leaving, the prospects still look good with many promising freshmen and underclassmen. Co-captains were Mark Mendelson and Bob Coombs. Team Manager was Jim Seidel.

Women's volleyball saw good competition and lots of spirit. Agnes Howard won first place, Sophomore Independents won second and Alpha Gam, Junior Independents, and Alpha Delta Pi tied for third.

Undergraduates

Being an undergraduate means as many different things as there are undergraduates. It means following a daily routine of classes, meetings, Saga meals, studying, and Wesley Chapel bells. It also means finding a challenge and an inspiration in that routine and seeing a goal to work toward. It's sitting on a bench talking things over, having a snowball battle, laughing so hard the tears roll down your cheeks, screaming with excitement when a friend gets lavaliered, jumping in a pile of leaves, and pulling an "allnighter" together. It means being sure you want to go Greek, or . . . being sure you want to be independent. It also means knowing the friendships you've made are deep, close, and lasting.

The West Virginia Wesleyan College Departments

1 — College of Liberal Arts. Courses leading to degrees in Arts, Science, Literature, and Pedagogy.
2— Academy. Elementary and general preparations; admission to Freshman year in the College.
3 — Normal School. For teachers; gives first grade certificate without examination.
4 — School of Music. Instructions in all branches from elementary to Coaching of Artists.
5 — School of Expression. Prepares for all kinds of public speaking.
6 — School of Fine Arts. Courses in Drawing, Crayon, Oil, China, Portrait, Tapestry, etc.
7 — School of Commerce. Courses in Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Typewriting, Banking, Law, etc.
8 — Summer School. Review for teachers, courses in regular work.

Location, Campus, Buildings and Equipment are first-class. Faculty is large, efficient and strong. Student Body is wholesome, earnest and growing.

The scholarship is high; so recognized by all leading Colleges and Universities. The moral influence induces proper self-government, is pure and Christian.

Look out for Jokes!

1904 — Volume I
Murmurmontis

Collected above are representations of the advertisements of our patrons from the early 1900's. In earlier years the support of the Buckhannon businessmen made publication of the Murmurmontis possible. It is now more of a mutual exchange of support, but advertising always remains a valuable asset.

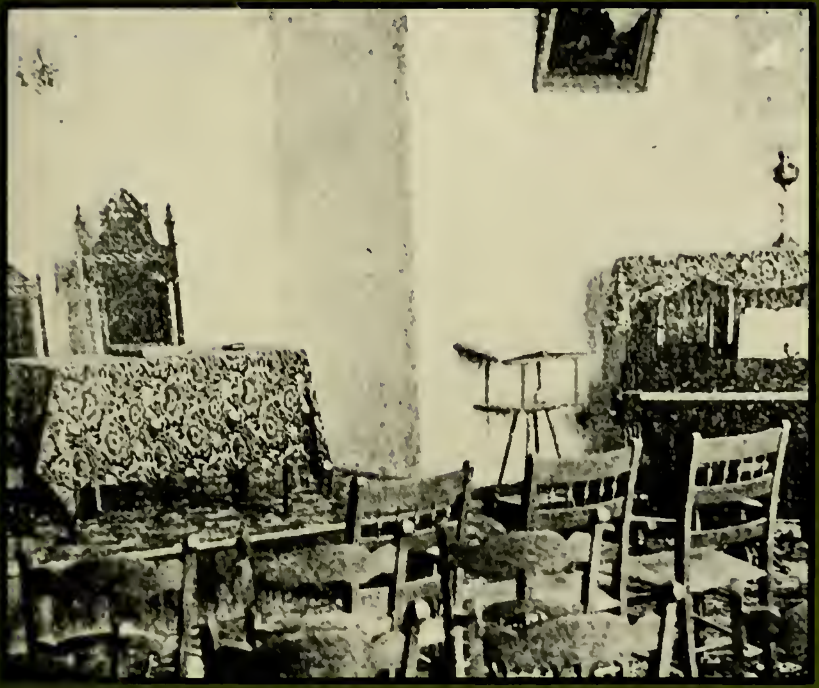
SEMINARY MAINTAINS FIRST YEARS' SUCCESS



AT FIRST, THE SCHOOL'S EQUIPMENT CONSISTED OF THE MAIN BUILDING, FURNISHED WITH ONE PIANO, NO TABLES, NO OFFICE FURNITURE, NO CARPET FOR ROSTRUM OR OFFICE, NO LIBRARY, NO APPARATUS OF ANY KIND IN THE CLASSROOMS AND ABOVE ALL, NO MONEY. HOWEVER, AS THE NUMBER OF WEALTHY PEOPLE WHO BECAME THE SEMINARY'S FRIENDS GREW, SO DID ITS FACILITIES. PICTURED HERE IS THE DINING ROOM LOCATED IN THE LADIES HALL, THE BUSINESS DEPARTMENT, THE CHRESTOMATHEAN AND EXCELSIOR HALLS: THE MEETING PLACES FOR THE TWO SOCIETIES ORGANIZED FROM THE SEMINARY'S BEGINNING. THEY TOOK THE PLACE OF FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES IN THE COLLEGE'S BEGINNING YEARS. EACH STUDENT BELONGED TO ONE OF THE TWO LITERARY SOCIETIES. THE SUCCESS OF THE SEMINARY'S FIRST YEARS WAS WITHOUT A PARALLEL IN THE EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE STATE.

FIRE DESTROYS MAIN BUILDING

WESLEYAN'S SUCCESS WAS NOT TO GO UNIMPAIRED, FOR IN FEBRUARY OF 1905, THE FINE MAIN BUILDING WAS DESTROYED BY FIRE. THE BUILDING BEING SO FAR REMOVED FROM ANY WATER CONNECTIONS, AND WITH SUCH INTENSE COLD, ALL ATTEMPTS TO SAVE THE BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT WERE FRUITLESS. AN ACCOUNT OF THE FIRE APPEARED IN AN EARLY ISSUE OF A MURMURMONTIS: ABOUT EIGHT-THIRTY IN THE MORNING, WHILE ALL CLASSES WERE BUSILY RECITING, THINKING OF NO DANGER, TWO GIRLS CHANCED TO BE IN THE HALL OF THE FIRST FLOOR AND NOTICING A CONSIDERABLE AMOUNT OF SMOKE ARISING FROM ONE OF THE REGISTERS, THEY BORE THE NEWS TO PROFESSOR TROTTER. HE AND OTHERS TORE OUT THE REGISTER TO FIND QUITE A BLAZE BETWEEN THE CEILING OF THE CELLAR AND FIRST FLOOR. THE BUILDING WAS QUICKLY VACATED AND FUTILE ATTEMPTS WERE MADE TO SAVE IT. NEARLY ALL THE LIBRARY, ALL THE FURNITURE FROM [illegible] AND FROM THE MOST IMPORTANT ROOMS WERE SAVED. THE HOPES OF THE TRUSTEES AND MANY LOYAL SUPPORTERS OF THE SCHOOL SEEMED SHATTERED. THE TRUSTEES AND CONFERENCE SUCCEEDED IN RAISING SUFFICIENT FUNDS FOR THE ERECTION OF A NEW BUILDING IN THE COMING FALL.

WESLEYAN ATHLETICS ONCE PRODUCED CHAMPIONS

THE YEAR 1924-25 SAW WESLEYAN PUT HER NAME DOWN IN LARGE PRINT ALL OVER THE U.S. THROUGH THE STRUGGLES OF EARLY ORGANIZATION AND OF REBUILDING AN ATHLETIC SYSTEM, ONCE THE GREATEST IN W. VA. BUT SACRIFICED DURING WAR TIMES, WESLEYAN ATHLETICS AGAIN CLIMBED TO THE MOUNTAIN TOP. WESLEYAN [illegible] NAVY 6 WAS THE STORY PRINTED IN EVERY NEWSPAPER OVER THE CONTINENT ON SUNDAY 26 OF OCTOBER, 1924. AND AGAIN WESLEYAN 7 SYRACUSE 3, BROUGHT WESLEYAN NATIONAL ATTENTION. WESLEYAN WAS INVITED TO PLAY IN DALLAS, TEXAS ON NEW YEAR'S DAY. IT WAS WESLEYAN AGAINST SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY AND THE HEADLINE THE NEXT DAY READ NOTRE DAME, CALIFORNIA, AND WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN WIN. WESLEYAN WAS SIXTH IN THE COUNTRY AT THE CLOSE OF THE 1924 FOOTBALL SEASON.

NOT TO BE SLIGHTED, WESLEYAN'S WOMEN DOMINATED THE SPORTS WITHIN THE STATE IN [illegible] FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE HISTORY OF WESLEYAN'S BASKETBALL, THE ORANGE AND BLACK CLAIMED THE STATE COLLEGIATE TITLE. WESLEYAN HAD DEVELOPED THE DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN WITH AS MUCH INTEREST AS HAD MARKED THE DEPARTMENT FOR MEN. IN 1925 A FIELD HOCKEY TEAM WAS FORMED, BUT INTERCOLLEGIATE CONTESTS WERE IMPOSSIBLE AS NO OTHER COLLEGE IN WEST VIRGINIA HAD DEVELOPED THE SPORT.

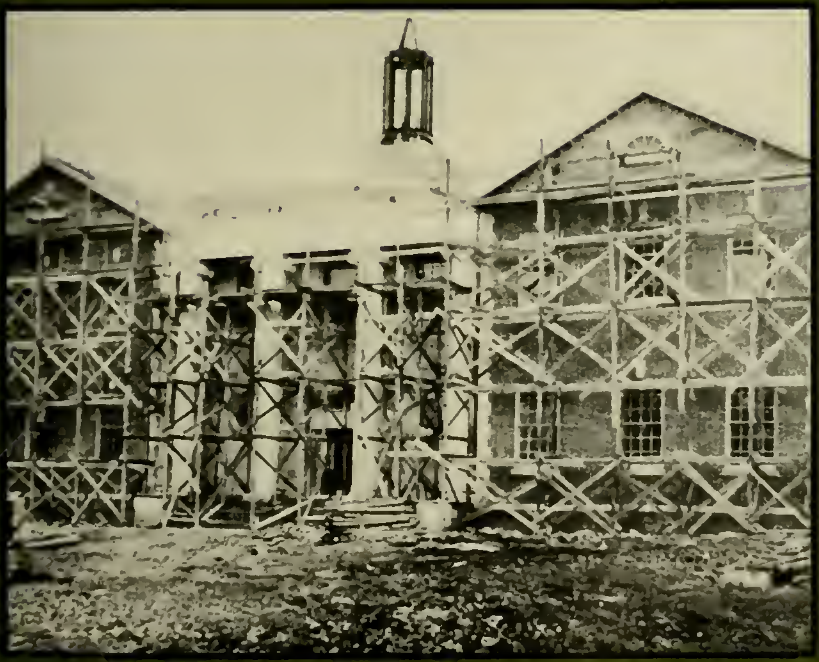
WESLEYAN ADDS PFEIFFER MEMORIAL LIBRARY IN 1951



IN THE 1951 MURMURMONTIS IT READ, SIXTY-ONE YEARS AGO OUR FATHERS BROUGHT FOURTH IN BUCKHANNON, WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE BUILDINGS HAVE BEEN BURNED AND RAISED, STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND ADMINISTRATORS HAVE COME AND GONE, BUT THE OAK GROVE HAS REMAINED. THE TREES IN THE OAK GROVE ARE THE ORIGINAL TREES THAT WERE ON CAMPUS WHEN THE SCHOOL WAS FIRST FOUNDED. HIGH IN THE BRANCHES THE WINDS WHISPER SECRETS OF WESLEYAN'S PAST, PROMISES FOR HER FUTURE. INSPIRING TO ALL WESLEYAN'S FAMILY ARE THEIR SENTINELS OF TIME IN THIS GROVE DEVOTIONALS RISE TO PRAISE THE CREATOR, YOUTH DISCOVERS COURAGE TO FACE DIFFICULT DECISIONS, AND BOYS PRESS THE HANDS OF GIRLS THEY LOVE.' THUS THE OAK GROVE REMAINS THE SAME FOR TODAY. THE 1950'S BROUGHT MUCH EXPANSION TO WESLEYAN'S CAMPUS. THE CONSTRUCTION OF OUR LIBRARY IN 1951-1952 SAW A LONG AWAITED DREAM COME TRUE THE ANNIE PFEIFFER MEMORIAL LIBRARY OPENED ITS DOORS TO WESLEYAN'S COMMUNITY OFFICIALLY AT GRADUATION TIME IN MAY OF 1952
